

first class

SAFARI LIVING

Get inspired by Felicity Rulikowski's interesting edit at Safari Living. With a polished eye she skilfully mixes an ever-changing line-up - from Missoni towels and African furniture to playful ceramics, eclectic tableware and hand-blown glassware - to create an irresistible visual feast.

579 High Street, Prahran, Victoria.
Tel (03) 9510 4500.

loom

A visit to Loom Rugs and Textiles will bring a lustful hankering for floor coverings. Inspired by the rugs his mother made in his native Turkey, owner Doan Bilgis offers unique pieces hand-knotted by craftspeople. The hand-spun wool rugs feature natural dyes and subdued patterns.
575-577 High Street, Prahran, Victoria.
Tel (03) 9510 3040.

this is living

With the arrival of a delightful collection of interiors boutiques, the fashion capital of Melbourne is now also a must-visit destination when dressing your home.

Words: Anthea O'Connor Photographs: Isamu Sawa

red hill house

Victoria's Mornington Peninsula has long been the holiday getaway for cashed-up Melburnians, and now they can satisfy their retail urges right through the weekend at Red Hill House. Locals and out-of-towners alike love Eliza Prebble's mix of locally sourced artisan products, soft furnishings, tableware and imported design pieces. Prebble keeps things fresh with a constantly changing line-up of products.
169c Shoreham Road, Red Hill, Victoria.
Tel (03) 5931 0225.

IZZI & POPO

For interesting antiques and vintage one-offs, Izzi & Popo is your place. Owners Harry Silman and Bernadette Wyer frequently source from Belgium, Germany and France, bringing back with them a quirky and diverse array of furniture, glassware and curiosities that never sits in the shop for long. Devotees love their web site www.izziandpopo.com.au, which itemises each piece due to arrive in the next shipment. If something takes your fancy, they're happy to reserve it for you. 258 Ferrars Street, South Melbourne. Tel (03) 9696 1771.

manon cie

Be warned: when you walk into Manon Cie, it is the interior you really wish you had at home. The third of Hilary Gwillim's style meccas, it shares the muted French sophistication of its sister stores but is mixed back with imported clothing (Organic and Nili Lotan from the US, Sofie D'Hoore from Belgium and Inhabit from France) and antiques sourced from across Europe. 1011 High Street, Armadale, Victoria. Tel (03) 9821 0760.

HOUSE OF ORANGE

This design warehouse is bursting with quirky relics, homewares and furniture sourced by Dutch duo Hans and Ursula van Schoonhoven. The effect is contemporary mix-and-match that is hard to resist. 2 Kings Way, Armadale, Victoria. Tel (03) 9500 9991.

